

How to Get to the Data Grid View in Lexis Nexis Community Crime Map

Choose Continue for the Announcements Pop Up Page and the Disclaimer/Terms of Use Pop Up Page

Insert an address and include a buffer for incidents within a certain radius of a particular address.

Choose a pre-defined date range or choose your own.

Choose which crime types to see.

Choose additional fields to see on the map like registered public offenders (from the KBI), analytic layers like hot spots of incidents, and agency layers like city limits.

The default view is the "Map" view but choose "Data Grid" view to see all the events listed in a table that appear on the map.

Note the "Data Grid" view will ONLY show what is shown on the "Map" view.

From the "Data Grid" view, you are able to filter and sort by left clicking on the down arrow in any column header.
